On successive days Attorney General Edward W Brooke will go before Grand Juries in three counties seeking indictments against prominent public figures.

The new scandals expected to be revealed are certain to shock and stun people across the Commonwealth. They may have far-reaching political repercussions.

Exactly what present and former public figures are involved is a carefully guarded secret even though rumors have been sweeping across Beacon Hill like late summer breezes.

At least some of the areas into which the crime board has been probing are known because certain of the persons who have been called before the board for questioning have told about their visits.

In fact, one elected public official informed his colleagues that he had been summoned to the crime commission offices eight different times.

But the order in which the crime probers are reporting their findings to Attorney General Brooke is

They declared yesterday hat they will file at least another 500 signatures before the deadline at 5 p.m. next Tuesday.

A total of 2325 valid signatures are needed to put the highly controversial issue on the ballot for another vote by the people of Newton.

Whether the petitions already filed contain that num-ber of acceptable signatures will not be known until election department employees complete their examination of the papers.

In order to be counted toward the 2325 figures, a signature on the anti-fluoridation petition m u s t be identically the same as it appears on the voting list.

If a person's name contains a middle initial on the voting list but not on the pe-tition, that signature cannot be counted as valid.

Governor Peabody and Demo cratic State Committee Chairman Gerard F. Doherty who teamed up in an effort to save the bill.

This represented some po litical acrobatics by Peabody who only last year was urging that the convention system of endorsing State tickets be abolished. Peabody's attitude toward State Conventions has undergone quite a change since he assumed the Governorship.

Doherty's support of the bill also was something of a flip-flop on his part. Until comparatively recently he made it plain that he held conventions in very low esteem.

An unusual aspect to the fight made against the measure by Senator Hennigan is that he and Doherty are law associates and are close personal and political friends.

The bill Hennigan opposed also might have aided him. The Jamaica Plain Senator is the leadership of Powers and regarded as a leading contend- vote for Dinan. er for the Democratic nomination for Attorney General in 1964.

Music School Opens Season On Sept. 16th

On September sixteenth, the All Newton Music School will reopen its doors for the fifty-third season. Under the directorship of Anne Gombosi, its highly trained and experi-enced faculty offers the child and adult student opportunity for individual lessons in all string and woodwind instru-ments, the recorder, the harp, the classical and folk guitar and voice. In addition, the stu-dent is offered musicianship classes (ear training, sight reading, scales, chords and their inversions) to assure a solid musical foundation.

A weekly playing class, where children play for other children, and a monthly re-cital open to the general public are other opportunities. Chamber music is encouraged on all levels of music study.

As the minute hand knifes into the hour hand of 12 noon, it isn't a moment too soon to explore the myriad won-ders of good dress and its relationship with good behavior. Many localities today set up student-operated codes of what is proper clothing for those attending school. A good example is the Buffalo school school's dress-right code that has proved to be a deterrent to bad behavior among teen-lt's the old story of being able to tell what kind of a person one is by the way he looks and the attention he gives to his appearance. That hasn't always been true,

Take for example, the chaps who lifted the Brink's loot. Several of these would-be financiers had top tailoring art when they bought their clothes. We recall that one was as kindly a chap as ever drew a cork out of a bottle. Good to

But the line of demarcation has never been as finely drawn as today. Kindly villagor or villain, stalwart citizen or crook, no matter who, all can dress properly in the eyes of the community. To some extent, it's always been true that the sharpest sharps, the greatest confidence men are smart Therefore, it behooves the honest citizenry also to keep

The Rt. Rev. Robert P. Barry celebrated the 11 o'-clock nuptial Mass, which was followed by a reception at the Longwood Towers.

Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Jerome Lynch, the bride wore a gown fashioned of candlelight silk peau de soie, marked with appliques of Alencon lace at the becoming neckline, and a cathedral-length train.

Mrs. Joseph F. Conlon Jr. of Natick was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Nancy L. Byrnes of Teaneck, N. J., Miss Donna M. Mitchell of Newton and Mrs. Jergme Lynch of Medfield.

John Ryan of Brookline served as best man. The ushers included Donald F. Lynch Jr., of Newton, Paul Lynch of Jamaica Plain and David Woodbury of Newton

Women Voters Seek Support Of Foreign Aid

All persons in favor of effective foreign aid are urged by the Newton League of Women Voters to say so immediately in letters to their Con-

The plea follows recent action by the House of Representatives in Washington in which $585,000,000 was cut from the foreign aid budget.

It is pointed out by the League that should the Senate override the House, the foreign aid bill would go back to the House for another vote, and so it is not too late to seek to influence the legislators to restore the $585,000,000.

Welfare Here Is Still Rising

Cost of operating the De partment of Public Welfare was higher in the year ending December 1962, than in the previous year, according to the annual report of Director George S. Wattendorf

The increase, however, was considerably less than case in comparing 1961 1960. That year it was $66,541. The 1962 rise occurred despite drops in general relief and old age assistance. Total receipts by the de partment in 1962 were $1,239, riage. 963, and the city's net cost was $245,458, a decrease of

His petition was opposed by some 20 residents at a public hearing last June. Ruled the board: "Severe as the hear Mr. Wattendorf reported that during 1962 expendi-tures for general relief dropped from $36,000 to $21,000 net cost to the city, due largely to a decrease in outside aid. Also, he reported, old age assistance decreas ed, but medical help for the aged soared as a result of a transfer between categories.

Aid to dependent children rose by approximately $6000 net cost to $32.000 of larger families and added

Because I am very fond of this girl, I want to have her mother like me. What can I do to change this situation? J. G.

Dear J. G.,

Dear J. G.,

I think you had better work pretty fast on this problem. If mother doesn't like you, her daughter may lose interest. Good manners impress your elders, so be certain to watch yours. When you are invited to dinner, be sure that you lead the clean-up brigade. Always return said daughter at the appointed time. If you are a frequent visitor, bring the mother her favorite book or a box of candy. This should help pave the way.

Dear Dot, I am 17. I have been dating I very nice boy. We have the same interests. We have such fun together. Recently he has vanished for a c ou p I e of weeks at a time. I don't want want of the clean-up brigs decomplant of the clean of th

Dear V. V., It could be that you are too anxious. Many teen-age boys tense up if they feel that you are chasing them.

Even though you are not running after them if they think you are they'll vanish. Don't you recall the words he chased her till she caught him?" You must ap-pear casual and not overly anxious. Don't be too domineering. These boys like to think they are in full charge. If you work on this the next time your boy friend takes you out, I'll bet he won't disappear too often. It's worth the try.

Dear Dot.

I am 12 years old. My parents won't let me go to drive-in movie with a boy. the other girls I know do this. Is this fair? K D

Most 12 year olds are not allowed to go to a drive-in with their boy friends. Don't you think you are rushing things? Why not join in the civic, c h u r c h and school mixes for your age group. I think a 12 year old knows very well that such priviliges go to more mature teen-age people.

Dear Dot, What a problem, I am 18. I have a very nice girl friend. She has a police dog. The other night when I called for her he tore a big hole in my pant's leg. Do you think her family should pay for this. G. A.

Dear G. A., It all depends on whether you are interested in courting or the court.

Dear Dot,

My parents feel that I should be taking a foreign language this year. I will be in the second year of high school, and I feel this is not neces-sary because most everyone speaks English these days. Whom do you think is right on this topic? M.I.

Dear M.I.,
I feel that whether or not you take a language depends more upon what benefit you would be able to get from the course. If you are just plain lazy, then listen to some good advice. Your parents usually know you better than you know your-er Congressman Laurence Curtis, who was in Washington at the time of last week's big civil rights march, reports on the peculiar attitude of Washington residents toward the march).

Ex-Cong. Laurence Curtis Reports on Freedom March

By EX-CONG. LAURENCE CURTIS

The average Washington resident acted as though he wished he could sweep the whole Freedom March business right under the rug. Washington in many respects is a southern community. To people with a southern point of view, the Freedom March was dis-They wanted nothing of it. Many wanted to get away from it.

to get away from it.

The general line of conversation heard prior to the march was that Aug. 28 would be a good day on which to stay out of Washington. I theard lawyers and business people saying that they were planning to close their offices, and this, in fact, became a general practice. The result was that the rest of the city away from the area of the march was half deserted, with traffic unimpeded.

along beautiful, wide Constitution avenue, bordered on one wide to avenue, bordered on one side by parklands. A warm sun and cloudless sky greeted the marchers. The steps to the Lincoln Memorial and surrounding grounds formed a purporpitately dominated by the Shrine to the Great Emancipator.

Contrary to the fears and apprehensions of some Washingtonians, the Freedom ple descending on the city for a great demonstration would get out of hand and bring with them disorder and violence Some of ill will probably hoped for as well as expected such an outcome.

Elaborate precautions were taken for maintenance of order. Local police had been withdrawn from many areas in order to augment the num-bers at the line of march. Their places were taken by soldiers with paratroopers' boots but wearing an arm-band marked "MP;" and they were at every corner.

To a Massachusetts resident the attitude of many Washingtonians seemed pe-culiar. It showed a terrible lack of confidence in the American citizens who took part in this great, kindly and or-derly demonstration. It was a lack of confidence which was belied by events.

As a former member of Congress I was able to sit in a section just below the steps of the Lincoln Memorial. The speeches were of unusually high quality. The occasion was intensely moving. Many was intensely moving. Many eyes were dimmed with tears as listeners heard fervent ap-peals of American citizens for their full rights of citizenship, and for Freedom NOW.

Deeply impressive was the testimony of Rabbi Prinz, a former Rabbi of Berlin under Hitler. He said that hatred and brutality were not the most important problem; even more shameful was silence; that a great many people con-fronted by bigotry, hate and

Crime Probe Overshadows All Else On Beacon Hill

The crime commission probe is overshadowing just about everything else on Beacon Hill.

It has caused a torrential flood of rumors through the State House as politicos speculate on where the next indictments will hit.

Uehlein To Enter Fight For Alderman

Varick road, Waban, well-known civic leader, this week launched a campaign for elec-tion as Alderman from Ward

A practising attorney with offices in Newton and Boston, Uehlein is a graduate of Bowdoin College and the Harvard Law School.

His community work has included service as presi-dent of the Angier School PTA, president of the New-ton PTA Council, a member of the Board of Governors of the Community Council, chairman of Scouting Activities, director of the Waban Little League and area chairman of the United Fund.

He is local appeal agent of the U. S. Selective Service by designation of the President of the United States

Uehlein served three terms as president of the Newton Republican Club and was largely responsible for making that organization one of the largest and most influential in the Commonwealth.

As chairman of the Republican Reorganization Committee he undertook and carried out the successful reshaping of the City Com-mittee of which he is now chairman.

He is a member of the Ves-try and Clerk of the Vestry of the Church of the Good Shepherd in Waban.

Uehlein and his wife, Mrs.

Elizabeth Thatcher Uehlein, have three children.

Political Highlights

But as the crime commission members and their employees go quietly about their work behind a heavy veil of secrecy, the rumor mill at the State House is working overtime.

Many legislators, for instance, are convinced that at least one telephone line in the House of Representatives is tapped and that conversations over it are

Before it can tap a line, incidentally, the crime commission must obtain permission from a Superior Court justice to do so. Some legislators insist that such authorization has been requested and granted.

One aspect of the crime commission probe which is being watched with great interest is the board's attempt to obtain a Superior Court ruling ordering a well known Beacon Hill figure to answer 57 questions which were put to him.

by the commissioner of public buildings for transfer of 70,720 square feet of land at Albemarle playground to the School Department for the purpose of construction of the new Horace Mann School. The site is diagonally across from the school that was destroyed by fire.

The meeting ended with an announcement by President Wendell R. Bauckman that Haskell C. Freedman, chairby President man of the School Committee had been taken ill. The president said he knew that the members joined him in wishing for a speedy recovery.

Rebecca Pomroy House Ready For Another Season

Following a successful camping season on the shore of Lake Cochituate, Natick, the Rebecca Pomeroy House, Newton Red Feather agen cy, is ready to open its doors again on Hovey street for the winter program that fills the demand for interesting activi-ties that keep youngsters alert and busy.

and busy.

In the nursery school, now registering with Mrs. Ruth Tedesco, boys and girls just under school age take their first steps in the widening social life of the community

Mrs. Anita Lorraine will head the modern dance class. Mrs. Carol Shields, the new assistant, will direct several groups in things they like most to do, and will continue the baton classes started last winter.

Mothers Clubs, the PTA and seniors will soon begin activities covering a range of interests.

and many other facets who gleam in this community's records.

There can be little argu-There can be little argument that Newton has seen some of its greatest growth in these past 20 years, or even 10. And while this period will be stressed, there will be much of interest about the "good old days" when steak was 27 cents a pound, when train rides to Boston cost 13 cents each way and taking of cents each way and taking of shad from the Charles was big business.

big business.

Actually, preparation for this special edition was begun long ago and already many fine, exclusive articles have been written for this publication.

One of these is the story of Suburbia, of thee we sing! There's nothing like the spreading growth of suburbs, but present-day settlers continue to move out from cities in ox-cart and Cad-

This "get-away-from-it-all" attitude is being evidenced everywhere. Where you had a cluster of homes 10 miles from a large city, now there is an expanded development. And where suburbs join forces with other suburbs you've got another small city in the making.

All this has brought about a change in apparel fashions. As soon as the homeward executive is met by the wife's station wagon, he's stepping into another

In his daily pursuit of the Yankee dollar to afford the luxury of living away from the teeming crowds, he wears a smart business suit. It may be a worsted her-ringbone, a sharkskin, a muted glen-plaid, or a deep tone unjnipsed worsted. tone unfinished worsted.

But when the commuter moves into the world of suburbia and Jacques of Newton Corner, there's a ma-ijor transformation. Out comes the casual apparel for living, such as sport shirts, slacks, suburban coats,

And things are more colorful today, particularly at Jacques, where you don't have to be a pioneer or psychiatrist to know the story on smartly-dressed

The more colorful the better, in fact. A city dweller happening into a suburban shopping area today can be stricken with acute astonishment. The colorfully-attired, casually-dressed suburbanites might be folk from another planet, for all he knows!

Coach Winkler Gloomy, But May Field Good Team

Football Coach George Winkler had 93 aspirants on hand last week when gridiron activity began for the season at Newton South High School.
Said Winkler: "We got off to a poor start."

But the head coach at the city's newer high school qualified that remark, saying that he though the boys still had their minds on summer vacation instead of football. If true, it was no wonder, considering the summer-like heat.

Winkler, like Royane, has nine lettermen to work with. The seniors among them are Dick Bloom, Dick Brodney, Capt. Mark Young, Dick Horwitz and Jim Hennessev. The juniors are Ted Clarke and Chuck Speare. Newton South opens on Friday, Sept. 27, at Fitchburg. Events from that day on will show whether the coach can fill the gaps left by former reliables who either have been graduated or have quit the gridiron for one reason or another.

Steve Carroll are excellent In the line Coach Ronayne can count on such dependables as Steve Woodruff, Pete Shattuck, Roger Watson and Tony Conti along with Dave Bliss. One obvious reason the capable Ronayne is unwilling to go out on a limb and forecast any championships for the Ti-gers is that the success of the season may well hinge on the development of some of the ess experienced players. Ronayne will be able to field ne excellent team. But he eeds a second one to back up his starting aggregation

Injuries to any of his key players also could knock the pre-season forecasts into the nearest waste basket.

But barring unforeseen de-velopments Newton should be in the thick of the contention the Greater Boston League crown.

Most of the other league coaches have precisely the same problems as Ronayne, and a big majority of them would gladly trade squads with him work Ronayne did last fall in his first year as the Newton High coach also should pay added dividends in the upcoming season.

A powerful Weymouth

team may stand between Newton and the league championship, with the experts predicting that the South Shore school may enjoy its finest football season in seven

Canadian Honeymoon For Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sundstrom

Now in Canada on their honeymoon are Mr. Carl Francis Sundstrom and his bride, the former Miss Joan Susan Engel. They exchanged vows here at St. Bernard's Church.

and Mrs. Walter E. Engel of 14 Hope street, Auburndale, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Sundstrom of Wellesley are the couple's parents.

The Rev. John J. Griffin celebrated the 12 o'clock noon nuptial mass. The Woodland Country Club was the scene of the reception.

The bride's ivory peau de soie gown was marked with Alencon lace, seed pearls and crystals. The princess bodice, scalloped at the neckline, had short sleeves.

A becoming headpiece held in place her illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and roses.

Miss Barbara Mozino of Havertown, Pa., was honor maid. Mrs. Walter P. Engel of Arlington, Va., was matron of honor. Mrs. Robert K. Murphy of Woburn, Miss Carolyn McInerney of Chestnut Hill, Miss Beth Martin of Tiverton, R.I., and Miss Dorothy Day of West Roxbury were brides-

The best man was Philip Tesorero of Waltham. Walter P. Engel of Arlington, Va., brother of the bride, Ray-mond Walsh of Havertown, Pa., Thomas Smith of Newton, F. Barry Maher, also of Newton, and Philip Driscoll of Wellesley were the ushers. The bride was graduated from Assumption Academy and Newton College of the

ETHEL JENNINGS

Mrs. Jennings To Head New Nursing Home

More than 10 years' experi-encye in nursing, including supervisory and administrative duties, makes up the background of Mrs. Ethel Jen-nings, recently-appointed administrator for the new Brae Burn Nursing Home to be opened next month in the Waban section of Newton.

Mrs. Jennings will head up the first modern nursing home signed for those needing nursin this area specifically de-ing care. She will be in complete charge of the new twoing completed at 21 Kinmonth Road, Waban.

Her appointment as the new administrator was made known by Pat Franchi, president of Franchi Construction Co., Inc., 425 Watertown Street, Newton. Mr. Franchi's firm is building the new nurs-ing home structure that is a combination of modern and Colonial decor.

Mrs. Jennings, formerly of line Jamaica Plain, but now a resident of 161 Elmwood Road, Needham, is a graduate of Booth Memorial Hospital in Boston. Following her graduation she served in gen eral and private nursing. In the summers of 1955 to 1958 she supervised the daily planning and feeding of some 500 underprivileged children at Camp Wonderland, Sharon. From 1959 to 1962, owned her own nursing home. called the Peggy Burkhardt Nursing Home, Brookline, where she carried out her own administrative and supervisory duties. In 1962, she attended a seminar on Nursing-Home Administration at Northeastern University's Conference House in Weston.

Active in a number of organizations, including the Girl couts, Mrs. Jennings lists as "most important accomplishment of all," the rearing of her three children, Sandra, 14, Wayne, 12, and Scott, 10.

over to Downe and Miller for the presentation of their report.

Downe and Miller directed the study to ascertain the city's renewal, redevelopment and conservation needs.

They were aided by three consulting firms, seven field survey technicians and other employees. The study was started in January,

The proposal for the Newton Corner project calls for the razing of one section and its redevelopment with new structures and the rehabilitation and conservation of other parts of the project.

The portion of Newton Centre which would be demolished under the plan takes in both corners of the Washington-Centre St. intersection, extends along Washington st.

The bulk of the Newton Corner project would be rehabilitation and conservation.

City Planner Downe plained that the rehabilitation and conservation ob-jectives would be accom-plished by structer code enforcement and by having the city make public im-provements which would encourage private owners to invest in and improve their properties

Following is a summary of comments contained in the report concerning each of the six project areas:

NEWTON CORNER

The best future uses for the area are believed to be a combination of commercial (local shopping), higher density residential uses and a strengthening of the one and two-family housing patterns.

For discussion purposes, Newton Corner is divided into three segments: northsouth and northwest. It is felt that the northeast segment should be high density residential, that com-mercial uses on northern side of Washington and eastern side of Centre Sts. should be discouraged, and that development should follow a pattern that would permit residential construction at reasonable rents in the vicinity of Washington and Centre Sts., then fol-lowed by a band of housing for middle income families and finally the area nearest the river devoted to higher rent, strong tax based hous-

Aside from the area adjacent to Washington, Centre and Charlesbank Sts., it is believed that no public acquisiabout two blocks in each di-rection from Centre st. and goes back to the Watertown future. It is not felt that largescale demolition and replacement would be justified.

The report on the area conludes with the statement that the entire Newton Corner area, through thoughtful planning, can be restored to its former position as one of Newton's strongest economic and more desirable shopping and residential areas.

The immediate solution is said to be the need for solving traffic problems that will arise with completion of the major turnpike interchange. There are several non-conforming uses affecting prop-erty values, and their con-tinued use should be discouraged, the report states.

In brief, they said, "the program was undertaken to ascertain the need for urban renewal activities as a means of renovating, rehabiliating and cleaning up de-teriorating and blighted areas. In actuality, it is a study of conditions in the city, an analysis of these conditions and a series of recommendations for municipal action.

Zone Change At 'Corner Is Opposed

Alderman John P. Mc-Carthy's proposal for a zoning change that would prevent construction of an apartment construction of an apartment House at Newton Corner met with opposition from two for-mer Aldermen at a public hearing held jointly by the Planning Board and Aldermanic Claims and Rules Com-

McCarthy's change would affect the land between Ver-non St., Waverly Ave., Tremont and Park Sts. and land fronting on Tremont St. and bounded by Waverly Ave. and Hibbard St.

He urged it to preserve the neighborhood's present char-acter, and pointed out that in 1951 the Taxpayers Association had recommended garden type apartments for the area when the neighborhood was deteriorating.

Opposition was provided by former Alderman Wilfred Chagnon and James E. Murand 10 residents of the neighborhood.

Plans for a $700,000 garden type apartment at North and Farwell Sts., Newton-ville, also met opposition. Alderman Franklin N. Flaschner pointed out that the plans called for 18 base-ment apartments, whereas only one per building is permitted by law. With that, the petitioner asked an opportunity to present an amended plan.

Still another proposal that met opposition was that of the trustees of Boston College for permission to replace St. Joseph's Hall, 186 Hammond St.,

"I believe our times deand just as sound and effective local government as state and national government," he asserted in opening his drive for a place on the Aldermania Beard the Aldermanic Board.

"I am also convinced that the long term future of the City of Newton depends on what we do in the changing sixties. If we are to continue leading the communities of this great metropolitan area, we must elect public servants dedicated, aware, and pro-gressive," Shea stated.

"Dedicated to the full-time service of our City; aware of modern aspects and applica-tions of local administration; and progressive in mosting and progressive in meeting the legitimate needs of all our citizens and the needs of our community as a whole.

"My specific program in-cludes procurement of the best local government personnel available, promotion of city personnel from with-in wherever possible, sup-port for a full-time City Planning Board, review of our City Zoning Laws and Building Codes, and careful scrutiny of the City Budget," he continued.

"With your support on Tuesday, November 5, I pledge my best efforts to fulfill this program and serve Our City, Shea said.

A life-long resident of New ton, Shea attended Newton public schools, and is a mem-ber of the Newton High School Alumni Association. Educated at Tufts University, where he majored in Political Science and minored in Economics, he also did graduate work at the University of Virginia Law

Shea researched Public Administration under the late Professor Morris B. Temple Emanuel Conducts High Holy Day Rites

Thirty-six hundred persons will worship at Temple Em-anuel of Newton during the High Holy Days.

They will worship either in the Temple sanctuary or the Community Hall with Dr. Albert I. Gordon, senior rabbi, and Rabbi M. David Weiss, associate rabbi, officiating.

Cantor Gabriel Hochberg and Cantor Kurt Flaschner will chant the liturgy at these services assisted by the Tem-ple Emanuel choirs. Dr. Robert Weiss will be the organist at one service with Arthur Fultz, organist, at the second service. Louis Siagel is the director of both choirs.

Cantor Kurt Flaschner, unanimous choice of the Ritual Committee to conduct the second service, was born in Vienna, Austria, where he studied at the Academy of Music.

In 1938 he went to Israel where he continued his musical studies. He has been a soloist with the Israel Phil-harmonic Orchestra and the Hebrew National Opera. He studied Chazanut in Israel and at Yeshiva University in New York City. He is married and the father of two children.

Peabody Faces Rugged Fight In Move To Oust Ricciardi

Governor Peabody has involved himself in a tough battle by his surprise move to reorganize the State Public Works Department and fire controversial Commissioner Jack P. Ricciardi.

Most automobile operators with whom this writer has talk-ed are willing to pay another penny a gallon for gasoline if it would mean they would get better roads and safer driving

Congestion on some heavily travelled highways is now so bad that motorists waste more than a few pennies a day by the tieups.

The average motorist probably wouldn't object to pay-ing an additional cent a gal-lon for gasoline if he was convinced he was getting a return

If Governor Peabody is really sincere about achieving safer and better driving condi-tions in Massachusetts, he might well direct his attention to the huge trucks which travel at high rates of speed on practically every lane of a high-

In most States trucks are restricted to specified lanes and are required to drive at a slower rate of speed than auto-

No state in the Union has more flagrant violations of this nature than Massachusetts and if the Governor would like to see that for himself he might well take a ride along nearby route 128.

If anyone should pay higher tax for gasoline or diesel oil, it is the trucks which take the most wear and tear out of a highway.

This observer has never seen big track flagged down for speeding no matter how fast it was going.

We have seen motorists booked for going five miles over the speed limit only to have a truck race past at a far greater rate of speed. Until Peabody does some thing about restricting the trucks to certain lanes and issues orders that they be compelled to obey the law, most motorists aren't going to take his safety talk too seriously.

There are, of course, some truck drivers who conscientiously obey the law and don't hog the road or speed. But they are in the minority.

These are some of the things which will become Peabody's full responsibility if he succeeds in putting his men in charge of the State Public Works Department.

Perhaps the matter of speeding, swerving trucks may not seem relevant to the issue Peabody has presented to the Leg-islature. But the hard fact is that an increase in the gasoline tax isn't going to do much to improve driving conditions until Peabory does something about the truck problem.

Former Representative Francis W. Perry tried to obtain the passage of a law des ing the lanes trucks could use on the Southeast Expressway. lobby at the State House, and that expressway is still referred to as "the shooting gal-lery."

Court Plum Bill Killed By House

Members of the House of Representatives demonstrated a real sense of public responsibility when they defeated a bill calling for the creation of a new position of chief justice of the Probate Court in Mas-

A number of Probate Court judges who were queried on the measure declared that it was a foolish one, that the position was not needed and that it would result in a sheer waste of public funds.

This apparently was nothing more than an attempt to pro-vide a judicial plum for a person close to Governor Peabody.

An effort was made to steamroller the bill through the House of Representatives, but the legislators displayed good sense in giving it the deep six. The fact is that Massa chusetts now has more Probate Court judges than it needs because positions were created in the courts for political favorites.

How to Recognize your WORLD BOOK ENCYCLOPEDIA Representative

... The Most Important Person You May Ever Meet May Visit You in the Next 10 Days!

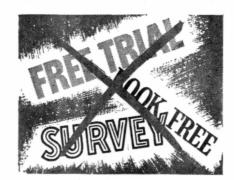

A Neighbor You Can Trust

Your World Book Representative may be a man or woman-an educator, librarian, church or social worker-a resident of our community, not part of an "imported team." Yes, if your plant has only 25,000 sq. ft. you will save $17.83 per day with power sweeping . . . and we can prove it to you.* In a year's time that's $4,610 saved. Larger plants enjoy even greater savings. Lambert sweepers clean far better than brooms, too. A blower/brush combination captures all dust and debris and the powerful, dependable battery powered drive means no noise or fumes.

SCHOOL'S OPEN!

DRIVE INTIH EXTRA CARE!

Watch out for Lads and Lassies on their way to and from classes! Remember the following rules, and you'll rate an 'A' for safety-minded driving.

- For safer driving, have your car's brakes, steering, lights, wheel balance and alignment and tires checked frequently.
- Keep alert for School Zone signs and make it a "must" to adhere strictly to speed resrictions in these areas before, during and after school hours.
- When you're behind the wheel, watch out for school safety patrolmen. Their job is to guard the youngsters; your job is to help them by always obeying their signals and instructions.
- Make it a strict rule never to pass a school bus in the process of discharging passengers. Always stop your car a safe distance behind.
- Keep your "eyes right" for children running into the street from intersections or between parked cars. For safety's sake slow down whenever you see youngsters at play or headed your way.

PTA Council Favors Recreation At Park

The Newton Council of PTA's, through its executive board, has voted to oppose the proposed rezoning of Norumbega Park for any purpose other than recreation.

There was only a single dissenting vote as the emergency resolution was adopted.

It reads as follows: "Whereas the welfare of the children of Newton is a concern of the Newton concern of the Newton Council of Parent-Teachers solved that the executive board urge the mayor and the aldermen of the city to take all measures necessary to acquire and preserve the Norumbega Park area for the use of the children of Newton for recreational purposes, and that the pending petition for rezoning the Norumbega Park area be denied."

Residents in the Newton Corner area already are get-ting fluoridated water although some of them don't yet realize it.

The fluoridation of the water lines has been completed in the section bounded roughby the Boston & Albany tracks, the Boston line, the Watertown line and Walnut treet.

Meanwhile, the lines are beng drawn for the battle which will be waged in the coming municipal election campaign over a move to repeal the or-dinance requiring the fluoridaion of the city's water system.

Feeling on the issue already is running high, and the indications are that the fluoridation fight will over-shadow all other aspects of the election.

A petition signed by 485 egistered voters was filed with the city's election com-nission to place the fluorida-tion question on the ballot for decision by the voters on Supporters of fluoridation countered with a legal move seeking to prevent the issue from going on the ballot.

They retained counsel and filed a 10-taxpayers' petition asking that the fluoridation question be excluded from the ballot. Superior Court Justice

Help Lick Litterbugs

This may come as a distinct shock to many people, and we dislike bringing up the subject, but this country seems to be losing an important battle -the fight to control the litterbugs.

The problem is local in many communities, statewide and national in scope.

Despite the alarming fact that $50-million has to be spent annually just to remove litter from our highways; that trash piles caused many deaths and hundreds of millions of dollars in damages in fires and that litter creates a breeding ground for disease, the litterbugs are still very much with us and show no signs of mending their careless ways.

It is well to remember that the occasional litterbug is quite as bad as the confirmed one.

Some of us may think that it's of no consequence to toss a candy or gum wrapper, or paper bag, from a speeding car, but just ponder for a moment on the size of the pile that would result if each of the cars in the immediate vicinity contributed one item of trash to it

This is one case where the molehill would actually become a mountain in short order.

Evidence of the litterbug is all around us; on streets and sidewalks, in gutters, along our highways and at parking lots, in theatres, halls and public buildings. Yes, even in private homes.

The problem is a serious one and is costing us money in taxes to clean up the mess made by the heedless. It's time to stop the litterbugs, by starting with ourselves.

Forward Step Towards Safety

The campaign instituted by Registrar of Motor Vehicles Lawton to check more thoroughly the roadability of automobiles registered in the Commonwealth is laudable and is producing results.

The move is in harmony with a suggestion made editorially in The Graphic some weeks ago relative to the advisibility of taking a more concise look at some of the vehicles annually flaunting inspection stickers although most evidently mobile hazards to life and limb.

Automobiles not properly equipped mechanically to compete in the rugged test of today's highspeed traffic do not belong on our highways. They are as much a death trap to their owners of operas to any hapless motorist who them in their moment of failure.

It was genuinely agreed that former socalled inspection periods somehow managed to miss the shortcomings in too many Bay State vehicles—a practice neither practical, safe nor eco-

Registrar Lawton's crack-down on improperly equipped or maintained vehicles is one of the most advanced and commendable steps taken in some time in the direction of public safety on our highways. We can't afford to shop around where human lives are involved—either a car is safe or it isn't. The new rejection stickers remove any middle ground.

This would represent a definite about-face for Peawho declared in announcing his reorganization plan that there had been a "general loss of public confidence" in the DPW's "probity and efficiency."

However, Peabody already has reversed himself once on Ricciardi and the DPW so that it would not be particularly unusual if he were to do so again.

As recently as Aug. 2 Peabody defended Ricciardi against Republican attacks and in a prepared statement referred to the "monumental improvements" which had been made in the State Public Works Department under Ricciardi. Seven weeks later, he exploded a bombshell by urging that Ricciardi be fired.

In order to present

In a message to the voters of Newton, Husselbee expressed the belief that it is the duty of responsible citizens "to be available and to participate in civic functions of the community to the best of their ability.

For this reason, Husselbee stated, he and his wife have always responded to calls of community interest. For three years, he pointed out, they have supervised and chaperoned the Newtonville Youth Dances which are run every Friday evening during the school year.

Commenting on the impor tance of service on the School Committee, Husselbee asserted that education "is the ed that education "is the greatest heritage that we can pass on to the youth of the

Lawrence Levy Security Group Guest Speaker

Lawrence Levy of Newton Centre, vice president of cor-porate development for the Raytheon Company, was guest speaker today (Thursday), at a luncheon meeting of the Hanscom Field area chapter of the Armed Forces Com-munications and Electronics Association.

Mr. Levy recently returned from Paris, where he served as principal civilian repre-sentative of Defense Secretary Robert McNamara, as well as defense advisor to Thomas Finletter, U.S. NATO ambassador. His topic was "The Changing Defense Pic-Noting that one in every five Newton citizens partici-pates in some phase of the annual Halloween observance, the Mayor said, "The success of this year's celebration as in the past depends largely on the parents who in past years have given many valuable hours to planning and direct-ing these wonderful evenings for our children. It will be vital to the success of this year's Halloween, to again have this vital and complete cooperation.

"Our aims and standards must remain high," the Mayor told the group. "We have an exceptional group of youngsters in our city and I know that we will not let them down by any action of ours as parents. I am sure that we may count on your full support." Recreation Commissioner

John B. Penney reported on the mechanics of the gigantic operation. He told the committee members that Supervisor James E. The '64s from Ford are here: The Year of the Test Drive starts today!

Ford cars have changed. Only a test drive can tell you how much. Races and rallies, economy runs, braking and acceleration tests have bred into our 1964 models the kind of total performance you just can't create on the test track alone. They are hard-muscled, fast-moving, sure-footed. Open competition helped make them that way. They offer you substantially more car than anything at their price. You don't have to take our word for it. We're willing to rest our case on our cars.

Enrollment At Mt. Ida Largest In Its History

Mt. Ida Junior College opened this week in Newton Centre with the largest enrollment in the school's history. President F. Roy Carlson reported the arrival on campus of some 565 students who came from 26 states and five foreign countries.

The freshmen were greeted by the faculty on Monday, and on Tuesday, the sophomores and a small group of third-year medical technology majors arrived majors arrived.

Other events in the busy opening week werein the allcollege president's convocation Tuesday afternoon, a picnic at Longfellow Pond on the campus Wednesday, and a bus tour of Greater Boston for freshmen.

There will be an informal dance in Alumnae Hall Saturday night. President Carlson said the enrollment increase was 18 percent over last year's, and the college has a much wider geographical representation than ever before.

News Copy Increase For Special Edition

By GENE LORICK Editor, Anniversary Edition

News copy for the special ed the readers from th anniversary edition which will librarian be published this fall by The Betsy Newton Graphic quickened in volume in recent days.

Actually, some 300 column inches of reports and special articles were processed and sent to the linotype machines.

These represent reports from many women's organizations. many women's organizations.

many women's organizations, churches and temples.

But still lacking are articles on many of the larger men's fraternal and civic organizations and groups and veterans' organizations in the Newtons. These are a MUST for this special edition of course and the edition of course a tion, of course, and the editor would appreciate receipt of these as soon as possible.

The anniversary edition will mark two milestones which occur in 1963—the 275th anni-versary of Newton's incorporation as a Town and 90th as a city.

In addition to the fine articles already in hand for the special edition, which were described in an earlier report, we have in hand messages of greetings from two Cardinals, both of whom were former pastors of Newton churches. They are Cardinal Spellman of New York and Cardinal

Cushing of Boston.

The latter went to considerable research to outline the early history of Catholics in Newton.

And the noted author Rabbi Albert Gordon, has writ-ten a comprehensive, al-though brief outline of the history of Jews in Newton. There are many fine, authoritative articles on temples and churches of the Chairman Haskell Freedman of the School Commit-tee has penned an article about the unique characteris-tics of American Education in his outline of School Commit-tees in Newton; Librarian Wiliam Kunkel has written an interesting account of the li-brary; how in by-gone days cages kept all books from readers, or maybe it protect-

Meeting Next Monday Plans Newton Choir

Plans are now underway for the formation of the Andover - Newton Ecumenical Choir, under the leadership of Dr. David C. Johnson.

An invitation is extended to singers, of all faiths, from all Newton churches, to join the choir. Those interested are asked to attend the meeting to be held on Monday night, September 30, from 7 to 9 o'clock at Noyes Lounge, 215 Herrick Rd., Newton Centre.

These are but a few of the highlights . . . there will be many more, special articles. But we again urge speed in submitting articles by clubs, organizations and churches which already have not done

ROBERT L. TENNANT

Tennant Is Ward 3 Candidate For Re-election

Ward 3 Alderman Robert L. Tennant of 183 Mt. Vernon St., West Newton, campaigning for reelection.

In announcing his inten-tion to seek another tem, Tennant expressed the belief that his experience as a member of the Board would be extremely valuable to his constituents at a time when the toll road extension threatens to complicate many problems facing the people, particularly those of Ward 3. A vigorous opponent of the proposed Rumford Ave. incinerator site, he maintains that the heavy traffic influx accompanying toll road con-struction and that following the road's opening would be further tangled by the pass-age of rubbish trucks in the

With that problem in mind, he has asked that the mayor's traffic commission and the Aldermanic Street Traffic Committee sanction a com-plete traffic survey of the section

Other city problems he feels he is well fitted to consider include real estate taxes, urban renewal and old age assistance. Since he is one of the few
